TRANSPORTATION

Location:

Cercle des Armées
8, place Saint Augustin
75008 PARIS
Tél : 01 44 90 26 26

The “Cercle National des Armées” is nicely situated at the heart of Paris, between Opera Garnier and the Arc de Triomphe.

IMPORTANT NOTE FROM HOSTS: Unfortunately, pickpockets flood Paris. This is a serious threat. We are happy to lend you some money and to help you to declare the theft at the police station, but we would prefer avoiding these kind of troubles. Please do be careful and watch your belongings

How to get there:

- The Cercle des Armées is on Place Augustin, directly on the metro line M9 (light green line on the metro map)
- Or, take the A-train (RER A – red line on the map) to the station “Auber” and enjoy a 10 min walk at the heart of Paris
- The public transport company in Paris is called RATP (cf. here for more details and the timetables)
- Paris has two main airports: Paris – Charles de Gaulle – Roissy (northeast of Paris) and Paris-Orly (south of Paris). From both airports you can join the city center via the train RER B (blue line on the metro map) or via dedicated bus shuttles. From Roissy –Charles de Gaulle, this takes approx. 45 minutes, and from Orly, around 20 minutes.
- By cab: the fair has been fixed by the government:
  - 58 € CDG Airport <->Paris
  - 37 € Orly Airport <-> Paris
- The train stations « Gare du Nord » and « Gare de l’Est » are also situated on the train line RER B (Gare de l’Est is at 5 minutes walking distance from Gare du Nord)
- “Chatelet-Les Halles” is a central station where many trains and metros cross: there, you can catch the A-train (1 stop to “Auber”)
- Check via Google maps or via the RATP website for details
